Subject: A Petition for Sharing, Equality and Improving Higher Education

Dear Professor _____,

We, the faculty of (university) _____ encourage the respectful professors such as yourself to share your study materials and previous exams on the free website PostYourTest.com to help improve and make higher education fair, affordable and transparent for all the students and faculty around the world.

We would like to see you to take the leadership on global higher education and upload your study materials and previous exams, and also encourage your associates to do the same.

Respectfully Yours,
